CASTLE APARTMENT NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Brickley, of the Castle, have moved to the Park Terrace Court.

Albert L. Fish who is on a trip east is visiting friends in New Orleans.

Mrs. Edith Barton and sister have returned to the Castle after an absence of a month.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Horn, of Alberta, Canada, are making their home at the Castle.

James Scott, scout master, hiked to the beach with his Boy Scouts on Tuesday evening where they passed tests in swimming.

A large party of Torrance folks visited the Llewellyn Iron Works on Tuesday evening. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Allen, S. Campbell, B. C. Hubbard, Robert Cotton, Mrs. L. Horn, Mrs. Edith Barton, and Mrs. J. C. Torrance.

LOCAL LEGION TAKES STAND
Redlands Facts, June 3, 1922.)
The Redlands Post of the American Legion, as was told in the news columns of this paper yesterday, has voted without a dissenting voice in favor of the indorsement of the Wright Act at the election next November. The Wright Act is the law that was passed by the last legislature, and which added to the law enforcement officers of the federal government in their efforts to put down bootlegging, the city and township and county and State peace officers of California.

Redlands Post is the first Legion Post in all California to take this step. Redlands Post is to be congratulated by every organization and by every individual in the State who stands for law and order. Peculiarly, the Legion stands for that thing; naturally it comes to the relief of the people who are to some extent being overwhelmed by lawbreaking in the form of bootleggers who unlawfully distill and sell outlawed liquor.

EL PRADO APARTMENTS
Mr. and Mrs. George Stone visited friends in Los Angeles over Sunday.

Bert and Fred Campbell entertained their parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell, and brother and two sisters, of Los Angeles, Sunday celebrating their parents' 35th wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Torrance hiked through Santa Ana canyon Sunday.

Mrs. W. P. Corbett, of Oregon, arrived last week end and is visiting her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Corbett, of the El Prado apartments.

Mrs. W. L. Hall and sister, Mrs. A. Clark, motored to Los Angeles on Monday and visited with friends.

C. Crane, of the El Prado, was awarded a prize at a card game recently of a fat goose.

Mrs. A. Buchanan gave her husband a surprise dinner Sunday with a number of friends present celebrating Mr. Buchanan's birthday anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Truitt and babe, of Taft, were guests two days last week of Mr. and Mrs. A. Buchannan.

Mrs. William Tolson, of Los Angeles, is visiting her mother, Mrs. Woodward, of Arlington avenue.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bartz, 2207 Andree avenue, a daughter, Phillis Louise, Friday, July 21.

Mrs. M. F. Garver and sons, of Santa Barbara, and Mrs. R. H. Blair of Los Angeles, were guests of their sister, Mrs. Roy Flood Tuesday.

Mrs. J. G. Gay, of Arlington avenue, knows that the oil well has come in, she can show you her washing of last week all covered with oil specks. We wonder what the washings looked like nearer the well.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Pottenger are entertaining the latter's brother and friend J. H. McHugh and J. Bergfeld, of Salt Lake City. They are looking for a location and if they find a satisfactory place they will bring their families here.

Rev. E. W. Matz, pastor of the First Evangelical church in Long Beach, preached in Torrance Central church last Sunday night. Long Beach visitors at the church were Mrs. Matz, John Natske, Frank Etner, F. Eller and Mrs. John Bohn.

Mrs. George Woodside, of Los Angeles, formerly of Torrance, was in the city Friday on a short visit preliminary to leaving yesterday for Texas and Louisiana where she will spend the next three months visiting with relatives and friends.

Miss Dorothy Burton and Peggy Melkie, of Pueblo, Colorado, arrived this week and will visit Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Atwood, of the El Prado apartments. Both young ladies are teachers in the Centennial high school of Pueblo.

Rev. Stanley H. Thorpe, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Torrance, and family, have returned from a month's absence of holidays. The pastor will occupy the pulpit at both services Sunday. There will be special music at the evening service and the pastor will preach on the subject, "The Old Adam and the New Adam." You are cordially invited. Remember, the new location, corner of Carson and Martina streets, near the school.

Colleen Moore Puts On Make Up in Bed

Some people might say that Colleen Moore is lazy, if they knew that her mother calls her at seven o'clock every morning and that she does not get up until an hour after she is called, but calmly lingers in bed!

There's a reason! Miss Moore keeps her makeup box at her bedside and the minute she is called she sits up and puts on her working harness—otherwise her makeup. This process takes at least an hour, and when Colleen finally arises, she is all ready for work. That is why her director never worries if she does not appear at the studio until the last moment, for he knows she is ready for action.

Miss Moore does some of the best comedy acting of her career in "The Wall Flower," a Goldwyn picture coming to the Torrance Theatre on

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH OF TORRANCE BEING REMODELED

The work of remodeling and building the Baptist church is now in full swing. An up-to-date plant where the word of God may be preached and taught has been designed. No unscriptural methods or plans will be put into operation, but Jesus Christ, crucified, risen and coming again, will be taught and preached and entire dependence will be placed on the Holy Spirit for results. You are heartily welcome to all services. Corner of Carson and Martina streets, near the school.
